ROUTE UPDATES LONDON-LAND'S END CYCLE ROUTE

With reference to: ISBN 978-0-9576617-3-8, publication year: 2022

Last update: April 2024

Routes:

4: Harwich-Maldon

page 46: From the T-junction at 6.5 km you can now turn left onto a cycle path on the left side of the road, which continues up to the roundabout at 6.7 km.

page 47: The T-junction at 23.2 km is now a roundabout, with a cycle path on its south side. Use this cycle path to join the road of the first exit of the roundabout.

5: Maldon-Woolwich

page 56: At 3.0 km, a new cycle path on the south side of the road makes that you don't have to cycle on the road anymore. Simply use the cycle path crossings to get into the Fairlop Waters Country Park.

20: Newquay – Penzance

Page 145: Look out in Zelah from 11.4 km for alternative or new signs of cycle route 32 to the left. The A30, running parallel to the village, has been widened and a new bridge for local traffic has been constructed. The new bridge route will rejoin the old road of route 32 further south.
